
Squalane and beta-glucan provide additional moisture and reduce dryness and burning.
Sacha Inchi oil, rich in omega-3-6-9 acids, nourishes the skin and restores its vitality, while Centella Asiatica supports the regeneration processes.

- Rebuilding the hydro-lipid barrier - ceramides strengthen the skin's structure and protect it from drying out
- Hydration and regeneration – squalane and Sacha Inchi oil provide the skin with intensive moisture and restore its elasticity.
- Relief – beta-glucan and centella asiatica accelerate the skin's regeneration.

Contraindications
