

Contraindications

The product is not allowed to use:

- In pregnant or breastfeeding women,
- In case of hypersensitivity or allergy to the substances contained in the peels, such as aspirin or aspirin derivatives,
- In case of oral isotretinoin treatment (up to 6 months previously),
- Autoimmune diseases, chronic uncompensated and/or dermatological diseases,
- In case of radiation therapy treatment,
- In case of recent dermatological treatment,
- In case of a history of scarring or hypotrophic scars,
- In case of herpes,
- In the case of open or partially open wounds,
- In case of active acne with open wounds or infections,
- For areas with micropigmentation,
- In patients with an unstable psychological profile.

Potential adverse effect

The following symptoms may occur in connection with the chemical peeling effect: temporary skin rash, peeling, scabs, changes in skin structure, remaining hypotrophic scars.

Rare: post-inflammatory hyperpigmentation.

Very rare: hypopigmentation.