

Warnings

- Do not use if any parts are damaged.
- When disposing of this product after use, follow applicable regulations for recycling and disposal of medical materials.
- Syringes should be stored in a cool and dry place, away from chemicals.
- Do not store in high temperature and humidity conditions.
- Syringes and needles are single-use medical devices. Used needles may be contaminated and should be disposed of in accordance with national/industry guidelines. Reuse may result in infection or other medical conditions.
- Do not sterilize.
- Keep away from children.
- The product should be used in accordance with its intended purpose.

